

Experiment 1

Name: Sehaj Inder Singh

UID: 24BCS11459

Aim

To populate hospital database tables with given records and retrieve the first record from the first three tables.

Question

Step 1: Insert the following data into the tables exactly as given below. Note: Use the exact table names, field names, and data as mentioned.

Step 2: After inserting the data, write queries to retrieve the first records from the first three tables: Doctors, Patients, and Appointments.

Doctors Table :

DoctorID	Name	Specialization	ContactNumber	Email
1	Dr. John Smith	Cardiology	1234567890	john.smith@hospital.com
2	Dr. Lisa Brown	Neurology	0987654321	lisa.brown@hospital.com

Patients Table

PatientID	Name	DOB	Gender	ContactNumber	Address
1	Alice Johnson	1990-05-21	Female	1112223333	123 Main St
2	Bob Martin	1985-08-14	Male	4445556666	456 Elm St

Appointments Table

AppointmentID	PatientID	DoctorID	AppointmentDate	Status
1	1	1	2025-02-15	Scheduled
2	2	2	2025-02-16	Completed

Treatments Table

TreatmentID	PatientID	DoctorID	Diagnosis	TreatmentDescription	TreatmentDate
1	1	1	Hypertension	Prescribed medication	2025-02-15
2	2	2	Migraine	MRI Scan and medications	2025-02-16

MedicalRecords Table

RecordID	PatientID	TreatmentID	Notes
1	1	1	Patient responding well to treatment
2	2	2	Further evaluation required

Billing Table

BillID	PatientID	TreatmentID	Amount	BillDate	Status
1	1	1	200.00	2025-02-15	Paid
2	2	2	500.00	2025-02-16	Unpaid

SQL CODE

--Complete the queries below to insert data into the tables & retrieving the first records from the first 3 tables.

-- Inserting Data into Doctors Table

INSERT INTO Doctors (DoctorID, Name, Specialization, ContactNumber, Email) VALUES
(1, 'Dr. John Smith', 'Cardiology', '1234567890', 'john.smith@hospital.com'),
(2, 'Dr. Lisa Brown', 'Neruology', '0987654321', 'lisa.brown@hospital.com');

-- Inserting Data into Patients Table

INSERT INTO Patients (PatientID, Name, DOB, Gender, ContactNumber, Address)
VALUES
(1, 'Alice Johnson', '1990-05-21', 'Female', '1112223333', '123 Main St'),
(2, 'Bob Martin', '1985-08-14', 'Male', '4445556666', '456 Elm St');

-- Inserting Data into Appointments Table

INSERT INTO Appointments (AppointmentID, PatientID, DoctorID, AppointmentDate, Status) VALUES

(1, 1, 1, '2025-02-15', 'Scheduled'),

(2, 2, 2, '2025-02-16', 'Completed');

-- Inserting Data into Treatments Table

INSERT INTO Treatments (TreatmentID, PatientID, DoctorID, Diagnosis, TreatmentDescription, TreatmentDate) VALUES

(1, 1, 1, 'Hypertension', 'Prescribed medication', '2025-02-15'),

(2, 2, 2, 'Migraine', 'MRI Scan and medications', '2025-02-16');

-- Inserting Data into MedicalRecords Table

INSERT INTO MedicalRecords (RecordID, PatientID, TreatmentID, Notes) VALUES

(1, 1, 1, 'Patient responding well to treatment'),

(2, 2, 2, 'Further evaluation required');

-- Inserting Data into Billing Table

INSERT INTO Billing (BillID, PatientID, TreatmentID, Amount, BillDate, Status) VALUES

(1, 1, 1, 200.00, '2025-02-15', 'Paid'),

(2, 2, 2, 500.00, '2025-02-16', 'Unpaid');

--Now write the queries for retrieving the first records from the first three tables (Doctors, Patients, Appointments).

select * from Doctors LIMIT 1;

select * from Patients LIMIT 1;

select * from Appointments LIMIT 1;

Result

SQL

the first records from the first 3 tables.

3 -- Inserting Data into Doctors Table

4 INSERT INTO Doctors (DoctorID, Name, Specialization, ContactNumber, Email) VALUES

5 (1, 'Dr. John Smith', 'Cardiology', '1234567890', 'john.smith@hospital.com'),

6 (2, 'Dr. Lisa Brown', 'Neruoology', '0987654321', 'lisa.brown@hospital.com');

8 -- Inserting Data into Patients Table

9 INSERT INTO Patients (PatientID, Name, DOB, Gender, ContactNumber, Address) VALUES

10 (1, 'Alice Johnson', '1990-05-21', 'Female', '1112223333', '123 Main St'),

11 (2, 'Bob Martin', '1985-08-14', 'Male', '4445556666', '456 Elm St');

Your Output

1	Dr. John Smith	Cardiology	1234567890	john.smith@hospital.com

PatientID	Name	DOB	Gender	ContactNumber	Address
1	Alice Johnson	1990-05-21	Female	1112223333	123 Main St

✓ Hooray, you did it!
